Hello Tim,

Yesterday, while I was talking to your sister, she became absolutely crazy about a Bernese Mountain Dog which she had seen in an animal shelter. She also told me that she was going to adopt it very soon. One of my friends was an owner of a Bernese Mountain Dog, so I asked him to send me some basic facts about this breed. Some of them worried me a bit (see the attachment). I think that Barbara should know more about them before she makes any decision about adopting a new "family member".

Take care,

Chris
